PERSONAL.—Young McDonald, son of C. C. McDonald, of Raleigh, is visiting his grandparents in Fayetteville, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Troy.

THE PRESS.—Our acknowledgments are tendered to many of our contemporaries who have made kind and flattering notices of our new enterprise.

"THE MERCHANTS."—Capt. Smith again rides the waves; the handsome steamer Marchion has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and is making her regular trips on the Cape Fear.

THE LABORER'S STRIKE.—We learn that two batches of hands on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley—Capt. Monaghan's and J. W. Knight's—have struck for a raise of wages, from 65 cts. to $1.00. At last accounts they were holding out against the Company.

THE GLEANER.—We are sending the SUN to those subscribers of the Gleaner who have paid in advance. They should bear in mind that they stand credited on our books with one-third of the time due them by the Gleaner, on account of the difference in price.

A BOGUS CIRCUS AGENT.—One C. P. Reid has been victimizing the Peoples' National Bank in this place with a check number 19 dated Bridgeport Sept. 18th for $170. Reid was here for a day professing to be a circus agent. We don't suppose it will hurt the bank materially—Ta, ta, Reid.

THE CONFEDERATE DEAD.—The task of removing the Confederate dead from Arlington to Raleigh will take place on the 16th of October, and a portion of the State Guard will take part in the services.

The Independent Company will go as far as Well-n, and meet the escort at that point.

THE NEWS FROM EVERY TOWNSHIP.—We wish to secure the services of a good correspondent in every township in Cumberland and the adjoining counties. We want items of news from every country neighborhood—marriages, deaths, specimens of fine crops, statistics of good farming, notes of all local changes and improvements, church and other meetings, etc.

Write briefly and to the point, and give us facts from trustworthy sources. Persons willing to undertake this not difficult task will do well to address the SUN.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. F. W. Eason, recently chosen pastor of the Baptist Church of Fayetteville, will arrive tomorrow by steamer from Wilmington, and enter at once upon his ministerial duties.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Cavness, of Jonesboro, called to see us a few days ago. He speaks in high terms of Prof. Doub's school. Mr. Cavness is a warm friend of the Sun, and promises to give his assistance in increasing its circulation.

WE HOPE THAT IT IS TRUE.—An exchange says that Judge David Davis has bought a lot of land in the vicinity of Fayetteville, and will devote much of his time to the improvement of the property. We hope this is true, though we had not heard of it before.

THE JEWISH YEAR.—This is the leap year of our Jewish fellow citizens, and is notable for containing 383 days and 13 months. The holidays will be unusually late this fall, generally commencing about the middle of September—full fifteen days earlier than this season. This, according to the ancient Jewish reckoning, is the year 5463.

THE FAYETTEVILLE WATER-WORKS.—No subject of a local character is attracting more attention than the question of the water supply of Fayetteville. The water is the purest that we know of anywhere, and every effort should be made to keep the works in good order, that a full supply may be furnished to the public.

It is only just that the owners of the property should have fair compensation for the expense to which they have been subjected, and no one should complain at a reasonable assessment in proportion to the quantity of water used. The water-rates should really be collected by taxation; but, as that is impracticable for the present, the public should be willing to pay reasonably for their water privileges, and should receive in return a pure and abundant supply.

There is, however, one serious difficulty in the present arrangement which is causing very general complaint—the trouble caused our country friends who come to Fayetteville day by day to trade. They reach here in many instances at night, find all the pumps locked, and are unable to relieve their own wants and the wants of their suffering stock. This evil must be remedied in some way—if taxation is not practicable, by such a general willingness to pay equitable rates (which should be as low as possible) as will obviate the necessity of locking the pumps.

COMMISSIONERS' COURT.—The Board met on Monday. Present: T. G. Hall, chairman; N. R. Blue, W. J. Kelly, A. A. McKaskill, and C. C. McDuffie.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Jeremiah Howard's allowance reduced from $2 to $1 50 per mo. Eliza Powell was allowed one pair of shoes and 8 yds of white cloth. Christian Wilson and Nick McFarland were ordered to the Poor House. Enoch Herring and Hester Ralston were allowed $1 each for this month only. Ordered that the little boy of Fannie Harris, at the Poor House, be bound to W. J. Kelly. The communication of John E. Eason was laid on the table. John McRae, agt., R. T. Strickland, J. E. Elliot, Geo. E. Elliot, Mrs. Jane Elliot, Miss Kate Elliot and J. E. Elliot & Bro. were relieved from double taxes. The petition of Sarah Deal was laid on the table. R. T. Scandlin was allowed to move his bar from Magnolia House to No. 47 Person street. M. Faulk & Co. were allowed license to retail spirituous liquors at his old stand on Green street. The report of Supt. of Poor House accepted and filed.

The following bills were allowed:

J. M. Byrd, jail account, $102; A. F. Hobbs, supplies for one pauper one mo., $4; Jones & Wilson, supplies for three paupers one mo., $7 50; J. E. Elliot, supplies for one pauper seven mos., $14; D. M. McDonald, pauper supplies $95 50; D. M. McDonald, Poor House supplies, $23 25; S. R. Parker, sup't, salary, $85; W. D. McArthur pauper supplies $12 50; Daniel Elliot, digging grave for pauper, $1 50; J. R. McNeill, coffins for poor, $6 30; J. H. Smith, repairing bridge across Crane's Creek, $30; D. A. McDiamid, bridge and taking tax list, $36; H. N. Monroe, bridge, $3 25; C. B. McMillan, officer of the court in 1882, $20 10; Hinsdale & Broadfoot, medicine for the poor, $18 52; Hector McNeill, taking tax list Rockfish Township, $22 50; A. J. Hollingsworth, Cedar Creek tax list, $24; W. G. Adams, Carver's Creek tax list, $19 50. Assessors: J. A. McPherson, Seventy-First Township, $10 50; W. J. Buie Rockfish Township, $9; John Smith Rockfish Township, $9; Daniel Smith, Rockfish Township, $9; Dougald McLaughlin, J. H. Smith and Owen Priest, Little River, $10 50 each; W. G. Adams and C. D. Nixon, Carver's Creek, $12 each; A. D. McNeill, Carver's Creek, $10 50; A. Overbaugh and A. M. Campbell, Cross Creek, $25 50 each; J. H. Roberts, Cross Creek, $27; N. C. Thagard, W. T. Fisher and W. B. Draughton, Cedar Creek, $10 50; W. J. Smith, Black River, $12; I. W. Godwin, Black River, $10 50; Joshua Williams, Black River, $7 50; J. M. Jessup and Haywood Fisher, Beaver Dam, $9 each; D. S. Bullard, $10 50; W. J. Honrine, W. J. McNeil and J. M. Goble, Flea Hill, $12 each.

The Board adjourned to meet on the morrow, at 9:30 A. M.

The school proceedings we have been unable to get in time for publication this week. Mr. Fisher, always efficient and accommodating, will hand them to us for next issue.

PAINTINGS.—Mr. R. F. Peterson has a fine display of oil paintings on exhibition at his photograph gallery on Person street.

JOURNALISTIC.—We were glad to receive a call last week from Mr. McDiarmid, of the Robesonian. We are pleased to know that both paper and editor are flourishing and happy, and to find that Brother McDiarmid's cachinnatory organs are in their normal vigorous condition.

RICE.—We have been handed a very fine specimen of rice, cut from the crop of Mr. A. A. McKaskill on the east side of Cape Fear river. The heads are very heavily laden with grain, and are about ten inches long. Mr. McKaskill has about two acres planted in rice, from which he hopes to harvest 100 bushels—50 bushels to the acre. This is a profitable crop, and our farmers should cultivate it more generally.

NIGHT BRAWLERS.—Some nights ago a band of loafers who combine to make night hideous tore off the ornamental parts of the fence of Mr. Sutton's residence, and threw them into the creek. Other instances of like wanton injury of property have lately occurred in different parts of the town; and we warn these lawless prowlers in the darkness that they are liable to not only the contents of a shot-gun from the property-owner, but to severe punishment under the law.

AN ERROR.—It was stated, last week, that the 3rd floor of the McKethan Building, corner Market Square and Person street, had been rented to the Independent Company for an armory. This is an error; the stores of the McKethan building have been rented, Mr. Lewald taking the lower store and will open therein a splendid stock of Dry Goods.

Mr. B. E. Sedberry will move his drug store to the corner—his old stand—so well known to many customers—where he will be pleased to see his many friends.

THE COMPETITIVE DRILL.—On Monday night William Hall was crowded with a large assemblage of all the good people of Fayetteville to witness the competitive drill of the company. At 8:25 Maj. A. A. McKethan ordered the drum beaten, and the company into line; when, for nearly an hour the whole corps was subjected to a rigid drill and exercise in manual of arms.

After the company drill the command was divided into platoons, when the same severe discipline was carried on, and, at last the drill became a squad contest of skill and perfection in mechanical maneuver. The judges were all skilled officers and tacticians: Col. Chas. Haigh, Maj. Wright Huske, Capt. A. B. Williams. Even then, with a quintette of good and true men, it was impossible to decide; and, at the last moment the names of the contestants were placed in a hat, and Miss Haigh (who was very careful to explain that she couldn't read pen writing) drew the name of Sergt. J. W. Mauldsby. The prize was then presented by Mr. J. H. Myrover, in a few remarks. The company then filed off the floor and the Major Commandant gave permission for the dance.

THE BALL. was, in the large number participating, the beauty of the costumes, and the elegance and brilliancy of the scene, a fitting finale to the interesting entertainment which preceded it. The dancing was continued with animation until 1:30 a. m.

The Independent's drill was very creditable. At Philadelphia we saw the corps excel the high standard of the other night—and it is much to their honor that in so contracted a space, there was no flurry or awkwardness displayed.

Sergt. J. W. Mauldsby may well feel proud of the prize he has won—both for his intrinsic value, and from the honor conferred in his selection as best drilled member of the company.

MARRIED.

RATLEY-McARTHUR.—By J. C. Poe, Esq., on the 29th ult., at the store of Mr. W. J. Myrover, W. B. RATLEY to Miss Laura McARTHUR.
